Jesus' visit to this family is a tender one where he finds some rest and refuge. Martha, Marie and Lazareth are his close friends. As things unfold, Martha is doing the grunt work and Mary is giving her presence and attention to their Guest. We don't know where Lazareth is. Jesus is not choosing which one of them he likes best . . . he loves them all for various reasons. He suggesting priorities. All of them are loving Him well. Whatever you do in your relationship with Jesus, spending quality time with Him is a priority. He'll guide you to do the rest..
